The individual listed below is employed by or seeking employment with Heritage Oak School, a Christian School ministry of Country Oaks Baptist Church. The mission of the school is to offer an exemplary, classical education, which supports the Christian family and provides teaching based on Biblical values. We do not proselytize faculty members, but rather encourage them to attend the church of their choice that is in keeping with the Statement of Faith provided to the faculty member on the application. Please complete this reference form as it pertains to this individual and return it to the school. All information will be kept confidential and will not be shared. By requesting this evaluation from you, the applying individual authorizes you to release this information to Heritage Oak School and holds you harmless for any information provided.

Please complete this evaluation form and FAX or mail it directly to Heritage Oak. Thank you for your participation in the Heritage Oak application process.
